Sri H. S. RUDRAPPA.—No steps are taken in that direction.

Sri J. B. MALLARADHYA.—Has the time come for the Government of Mysore to consider seriously the question of getting the popular words of the regional language fitted in the Hindi vocabulary?

Sri H. S. RUDRAPPA.—The time has come, but we have to do it.

Mr. SPEAKER.—The reply to (c) is 'No'. If it is agreed that Sri D. C. Pavate is a person coming from our state, the answer may be corrected accordingly.

Sri V. P. DEENADAYALU NAIDU.—What are the effective steps taken by the Government to promote and develop Hindi by incorporating the regional language words into Hindi?

Sri H. S. RUDRAPPA.—As I said before, no steps have been taken.

Sri V. P. DEENADAYALU NAIDU.—May I know whether the Devnagari script will be adopted for Telugu and Kannada languages?

Mr. SPEAKER.—That does not arise out of this question.
